VOLUME CVI.--NO. 234. ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 3, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

"Shut your eyes, open your mouth and see what luck will bring you."

Many a woman is weak and sick, nervous and discouraged. She suffers from headache, backache and other ills. She wants to be well, but all she does is to shut her eyes and open her mouth for medicine and trust to luck for results. She "doctors" month after month, often year after year, in this same blind, haphazard fashion, and receives no permanent benefit.

Women take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with their eyes open to the fact that it cures womanly ills. It cures irregularity. It dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. There is no trusting to luck by those who use "Favorite Prescription."

"In the year 1903 my health was poor," writes Mrs. J. Huck, of 242 Broadway, Buffalo, N. Y. "I suffered from falling of womb, a disagreeable discharge, painful monthly periods, headache, backache and pains in the limbs. Every month was confined to bed for two or three days. Was weak, nervous and hysterical; life was a burden to myself and I made every one in the family unhappy because I was so irritable. My husband got me four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and before I had taken the first bottle I was feeling some relief. The medicine made me well and strong, free from nervousness, aches and pain, and I felt like a new woman. Before I used the 'Favorite Prescription' I had been taking another physician's medicine for nearly three months, but had received no benefit. Your medicine is certainly the best in the world."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated but never equaled.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

HAMLINS

WIZARD OIL

If you have ever experienced its gentle, quieting influence, on an aching, throbbing head, tooth, or other nerve, you will never be without it in the house.

"I had been subject to sick headache for over 5 years," writes Mrs. A. C. Scharfer of Great Bend, Kan. "I used one bottle of Hamlins Wizard Oil, and have not had a headache since."

And C. Dieckman, of 193 Hendricks St., Detroit, Mich., writes: "I have always found relief from earache by using Hamlins Wizard Oil." Price 50c and $1.00.

ADDICKS TRAPPED.

After discovering that he had been led into a trap, J. Edward Addicks yesterday afternoon voluntarily eliminated himself from the union republican State organization of Delaware, the creation of which has cost him hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The State committee, of which Senator J. Frank Alee is chairman, met at Dover to appoint a committee to confer with the regular republicans on the proposed amalgamation of the republican party. To the dismay of Allee, who thought he controlled the committee by a large majority, Addicks had coralled nine members, against nine controlled by Allee.

A stormy session followed over the appointment of a subcommittee to confer. A motion to have David S. Clark, the presiding officer, name the subcommittee failed. The vote was 9 to 9, but Clark, who is an Allee man, tried to vote twice, once as a member and the other time as chairman, and thus name the committee. This caused an uproar. Addicks suggested that the subcommittee consist of himself, Dr. C. R. Layton, William Tharp, ex-Senator Groves and Allee. A wrangle followed. Then a subcommittee to suggest names for the harmony committee was appointed. Addicks, Layton and Secretary of State Cahall composed this committee.

Addicks substituted the name of Dr. Geo. W. Marshall, Insurance Commissioner, for that of Tharp and thus played into Allee's hands. The committee unanimously agreed to this subcommittee. After adjournment the harmony committee met and Addicks suggested Dr. Marshall for chairman of this committee. Dr. Marshall dumfounded Addicks by declining and suggesting Senator Allee for chairman. Seeing that Marshall also had deserted him and Allee controlled the subcommittee, Addicks declared: "I will not serve on a committee with that man Allee as chairman. He is a traitor. He is a Judas Iscariot, and the whole world knows it."

Addicks bolted the committee and Allee was elected chairman by the remaining members. The subcommittee will have to report back to the full State committee, where Addicks can again make a fight.

The regular republicans have not yet appointed their committee to conduct the peace negotiations.

MOB AFTER JUDGE.

The spectacle of a member of the judiciary being dragged about by a mob and forced to rescind an official order ended a day of turmoil yesterday at Brighton, Colo., the county seat of Adams county, adjoining the city limits of Denver, Colorado. A. H. Guthiel, county judge, summoned the mayor, marshal, and members of the town board before him yesterday, and lectured them for their alleged failure to enforce ordinances against gamling and Sunday liquor selling. Following this, he ordered the sheriff and marshal to gather the slot machines in the town of Brighton, and when they reported later that they could only fine one, Judge Guthiel deputized two men to arrest them for contempt. In the meantime, both the sheriff and the marshal disappeared. The report of the judge's action concerning the two peace officers spread through the town and caused much excitement. Citizens began to gather on the streets, and, fearing for his personal safety, Judge Guthiel boarded a Union Pacific freight engine as it was pulling a train slowly through the town. He ordered the engineer to uncouple the engine from the train, it is said, and run to Denver with him, threatening legal action unless the engineer complied with the order. The latter refused to obey the demand, and while they were discussing the matter a mob gathered around the engine and Judge Guthiel was dragged from the cab. He was told that he must rescind his order of arrest against the sheriff and marshal, and upon being assured that he had already done so, the judge was released by the mob and allowed to proceed to Denver on a passenger train later. Judge Guthiel has been at war almost constantly with other county officers since his administration began, about a year ago, and has had those officials and members of the bar before him time and again on charges of contempt.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Splendid Idea.

A Daredevil Ride

often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve." "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

Alexandria Gazette — SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS — AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 3, 1905.

MR. JOHN A. MCCALL may have to reimburse the New York Life for the money he gave the republican party, or give up his position, or see his company barred out of several States. There is a disposition on the part of the Insurance Commissioners to insist on this refunding as a condition of the company's continuing business in their States. Concerning his "contributions" the Philadelphia Record says:

It would take Mr. McCall's salary for nearly eight months to make good his last contribution to the republican campaign chest. Perhaps it was in anticipation of such a demand that he told the Armstrong committee that he was in humble circumstances. When he died there would not be much for his family except his life insurance. Well, that would amount to between half a million and a million dollars. He has had $75,000 a year for a dozen years, his country place has cost not less than half a million dollars, and he has, of course, a suitable residence in town.

ADDICKS has suffered another setback. Members of his own party sold him out yesterday, and the ex-Senator is now a bolter or seceder and ready to start a new departure in order to regain his position "on top." Addicks is the type of many who are overburdened with wealth and thirst for power. He has spent several fortunes in attempting to climb the greased pole leading to senatorial honors. He is apparently as far from his goal as ever, having yesterday again fallen flat to the ground. Addicks must be a sui generis, politically speaking, if, with all his ducats, the republicans consider it for the good of the party to side-track him. But few in his own party will lose any sleep over his discomfiture, while no one in the opposite camp will mingle his regrets with those of the would-be political boss, who is attempting to buy a seat in the U. S. Senate.

MR. SWANSON, the democratic nominee for Governor of Virginia, opened his campaign at Manassas yesterday in reference to Judge Lewis's action. In 1876 in bringing United States soldiers to Petersburg for the purpose of controlling the election in that city, Mr. Swanson declared that Judge Lewis had violated the United States constiutution, that a man who would violate the constitution in 1876 would not hesitate to do so again and such was not a fit person to be Governor of Virginia. Mr. Swanson takes the ground that a horse that has once run away can never be trusted again and applies this principle to Judge Lewis. He is about right.

LIABLE in damages to their clients for evil results consequent upon misleading advice is the penalty which German lawyers are to be called upon to pay in their native land. Consul-General Guenther has so informed the Department of Commerce and Labor, saying that the Supreme Court of Germany rendered a decision to this effect. The lawyer is liable to the full extent if the incorrect advice is carelessly given. The court took the position that in receiving remuneration for the advice the lawyer becomes the debtor to the client. This is not bad law, but a great deal of justice.

CHICAGO capitalists yesterday opened an institution, to be known as the Mutual Bank, which is asserted to be the first of its kind in the country. It is organized under existing laws as a bank, and owned and operated by stockholders, but promises to divide its profits equally with its savings depositors. It is to be hoped that this "mutual" feature of the bank will not be conducted according to the New York mutual insurance companies' methods.

SECRETARY SHAW in his speech at Richmond last night said:

The republican party has never sacrificed one industry with the hope of building up another, and never will. Neither will it prejudice one locality in the interest of another. It will be national, and not provincial. It will protect the south as well as the north, the east as well as the west, and the west as well as the east.

The only answer to this is the question, Has it?

DISPATCHES from Germany say that a wholesale massacre of Armenians is being planned throughout Turkey. It is said that the Sultan has resorted to this drastic measure in order to check revolutionary movements. Rivers of blood have been shed in the east during centuries that have followed the rise of the Ottoman empire, and conditions show but little change at the beginning of the twentieth century.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 3.

President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America was President Roosevelt's first caller today. He denied that he had been asked by the President to call on him, but stated that he came of his own volition, it being his desire to advance the candidacy of Louis Hammerling for the position of internal revenue collector in the Scranton, Pa., district. Hammerling is the editor of the official organ of the United Mine Workers. He has not as yet received the support of the Pennsylvania Congressmen. "I did not bring up the coal strike situation in my talk with the President," said Mr. Mitchell. "As far as the reports go that the operators are storing up vast quantities of coal because of the prospect of a strike, I have no information of my own. Nor have I heard anything to the effect that the enforcement of the child labor law will result in closing down a number of Pennsylvania mines. My own opinion is that it will not have that effect."

The forthcoming message of the President to Congress was not taken up.

The last weekly issue of the Weather Bureau crop report until the opening of the next crop season was issued today. It says: "An exceptionally large and fine field of corn is now assured over much of the greater part of the corn belt. As a whole the reports indicate no decided change in the condition of cotton, as compared with the prevous week. A light apple crop is reported nearly everywhere, only a few important apple producing States indicating satisfactory yields. Owing to the extensive prevalence of blight and rot in the principal potato producing States a light crop of potatoes of inferior quality is generally promised. The fall season so far has been exceptionally favorable for plowing and seeding in the central valleys, Lake Region, and middle Atlantic States."

Leonard, the Forger.

New York, Oct. 3.—The police officials are convinced that Henry Leonard, the forger, was the tool of a man and a woman. The police are working on clues furnished by Leonard's family which they feel certain will bring to light every step in the plot. Leonard still maintains that he was alone in the crime, but the police declare his assertion that he wished to teach Wall street an "object lesson," is a bluff. That Leonard did return at once $259,000 of the stolen collateral is true, but he returned only the non-negotiable bonds and stock certificates. He kept $100,000 worth of stocks for which he could have found a market after the present excitement subsides. The police have given out that the missing securities were found in the wardrobe in young Leonard's room, and returned to them by the young man's father. Leonard's sister and mother, however, declare that the securities were found in a safe deposit vault where they had been placed by the woman in the case. The police have the name and description of the person who rented the safe deposit box, and also the name of the woman.

Abe Levy, the lawyer who so successfully defended Nan Patterson, when the former Florodora girl was on trial for the killing of Caesar Young, the bookmaker, has been retained by the father of Henry A. Governor Lanham, of Texas, last night ordered two militia companies from Houston to Edna, where citizens threaten to burn at the stake Monk Gibson, the negro accused of the murder of the Conditt family. The searchers are still confident of capturing the negro.

Assaulted by a Negro.

Mrs. Frank Brown, of Amherst Courthouse, is in a precarious condition as the result of an assault made upon her Sunday night by a negro. The man knocked her senseless with a blow on the head, blindfolded her, and, it is believed, accomplished the crime. "Hurricane" Branch, of Suffolk, is already on his way to Amherst with bloodhounds. Mrs. Brown had gone to the pasture to milk a cow, which animal had been tied at the farther end of the field by the negro, for the evident purpose of enticing the young woman away from the vicinity of the road. When her husband arrived home, finding his wife absent, he went in search of her. He found her by a fence which surrounds the pasture, his attention being attracted by her feeble cries for help. Her clothing had been torn to shreds, there were finger prints on her throat, and she had been dragged some distance from where she was first attacked. Mrs. Brown did not get a good look at the negro. She says she thinks that possibly two men attacked her, but that she was blindfolded and knocked down so suddenly that she does not remember what happened. Feeling in Amherst is bitter, and if the perpetrator of the outrage is captured there will probably be a lynching. Mrs. Brown is about 20 years of age, and has a child less than a year old. She is held in the highest esteem in the community in which she resides.

A Clever Swindler.

As stated in the Gazette of that day Henry Leonard, 24 years old, a clerk for Halle & Stieglitz, brokers, of 30 Broad street New York confessed yesterday that he is the man who robbed the National City Bank of $359,000 in securities on Wednesday last. He was arrested Saturday and kept in close confinement until yesterday. Leonard lives at 586 east One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street. He looks younger than he really is and from his general appearance never would be suspected of such a crime as that which he confessed yesterday. The strangest part of the young man's story, as told to the police, was his assertion that he carried through the forgery and theft just to show how easy it would be to outwit the safeguards of a New York bank. After the theft Leonard mailed $800,000 of the securities to Dyer Pearl, senior member of the firm of Pearl & Co., the owners of the securities. He addressed the package to Mr. Pearl's home, where it was found Saturday.

When caught Leonard told the police where the remainder of the loot was, and it was secured last night

The police do not believe his story, and they say that everything shows that he had carefully studied out the crime he was about to commit, with the evident idea that he could market at least one of the securities and escape detection.

New Rates of the Royal Arcanum.

Beginning yesterday, members of the Royal Arcanum will have to pay the increased assessment rates adopted by the supreme council in Atlantic City in May. Moorefield Storey, of the Massachusetts bar, has been retained by the national executive committee of the associated councils of the Royal Arcanum to conduct their suit in Boston against the supreme council, with reference to the raised assessments. The legal committee of the national executive committee has drawn up a circular which it intends to issue to the 185,000 members of the Royal Arcanum. It gives them advice as how to treat the blanks provided by the supreme council by not signing them and to pay future assessments as they become due only under protest in writing. It also states that the suits begun in Tennessee and Ontario have not been instituted by the national executive committee, and it assumes no responsibility for them.

On the stage were Judge Sims, G. R. Swift and R. C. L. Moncure, of Stafford, candidate for the House. Senator Martin dwelt at length on the elimination of the negroes from politics, and said that the republicans, if they had the power, would reinstate the negroes and give them back their suffrages. The Senator said that a new era in progress started in Virginia when the new constitution was adopted.

Congressman Swanson was given a tremendous ovation. Notwithstanding he spoke at Manassas yesterday and had traveled 100 miles to keep his appointment, he gave no evidence of fatigue and spoke with his usual fire. Today Senator Martin, Congressman Swanson, Congressman Rixey, Judge Sims and others spoke at Stafford Courthouse. A free dinner was one of the features of the day.

Death from Joy.

Henry Gluck, 60 years old, a veteran of the Franco-Prussian war, dropped dead Sunday in Philadelphia from excessive emotion caused by joy at securing employment. The old soldier had no home and wandered about the streets hunting for work. On Saturday night he applied to Oswald Baumgratz, for whom he had worked, and as he was faint with hunger Mrs. Baumgratz gave him his supper, and when her husband got home they decided to keep the old man over night. On Sunday morning after breakfast Baumgratz told Gluck he could have work. Overcome with joy, he started to express his gratitude and fell dead.

Woman Robbed.

Mrs. Joseph Devito was held up and robbed of $2,000 in the back yard of her home, in Greene lane Brooklyn yesterday. The money was the savings of her husband, a fruit merchant, and was to have been used to buy the house in which they lived. On Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Devito gave a party to celebrate their achievement in saving the money. All the guests were told that Mrs. Devito had the cash sewed into the lining of her dress. Early yesterday she went into her back yard to investigate a noise, when two men held her up at the point of a revolver, cut the money from her clothing, and escaped.

Train Robbed.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 3.—The regular Great Northern Overland train which left Seattle eastbound at 8.20 o'clock last night was held up by a gang of bandits and the express safe blown open with dynamite ten miles from here. More than one hundred shots were exchanged between the bandits and the train crew. Two boys who got on the "blind baggage" here as soon as the hold up began entered the passenger coaches and held up the passengers. They were captured. The train was flagged near a brick yard, and as the engineer slowed up the train, two men dressed in rain coats, climbed over the tender and presented revolvers at the engineer's head. When the train was stopped, the baggage and express cars were uncoupled by one of the robbers, and the engineer was instructed to pull ahead, which he did, for several hundred yards when he was again commanded to stop. Two robbers then jumped off, making the engineer and firemen do the same. All marched to the baggage car door, and the messenger was commanded to open the door which he refused to do. A heavy charge of dynamite was placed against it; the explosion tore the car almost to pieces. The safe was then dynamited. The robbers secured all the contents and escaped. Officers say the amount is small. The two boys who were arrested claim they never met the hold up men until they got on the train, and are in no way connected with the work of blowing the safe, the idea to hold up the passengers, they say, occurred after the explosion.

Planning Another Massacre.

Frankfort-on-the Main, Germany, Oct. 3.—The Frankfurter Zeitung sounds a warning to the entire civilized world that another massacre of Armenians throughout Turkey is imminent. The contemplated slaughter of Armenians, it declares, will surpass that which occured during the massacres of 1896. According to the information received by the newspaper, the Turkish ministers of war and of the interior summoned the Armenian patriarch to the Yildiz-Kiosk or Palace of the Sultan, at Constantinople, and told him that the Sultan has resolved to give orders for a general massacre of Armenians, unless the Armenian revolutionary agitation is stopped immediately. The foreign embassies at Constantinople are showing far less sympathy with the Armenians than they did in 1896, and according to the Zeitung, the Armenians are doomed unless international public opinion is so vigorously expressed that it will intimidate the Sultan from carrying out his plans for the massacre.

To Overthrow German Rule.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—A conspiracy has been discovered in German southwest Africa on the part of the Boers who were taken there from Cape Colony to assist in the war against the Herreros to overthrow the German rule in that territory, and establish a Boer republic in its stead. The leader of the conspiracy is Andrew De Wet, a nephew of the Boer General De Wet, and he, with his principal supporters have been arrested. De Wet's plan was to surprise the small German garrison, at Windhuk, seize the governor general and massacre every one who resisted his attempt to secure possession of the county. Having thus captured the capital, he intended to proceed to the quest of the entire country, massacreing the German troops, unless they surrendered. The Boers had obtained prominses of support from the Witbois, Herreros, and other native tribes by pledging themselves to restore the native privileges, after the Germans had been driven from the country.

The Insurance Investigation.

New York, Oct. 3.—When the legislative insurance investigation committee meets tomorrow, John A. McCall, president of the New York Life, will probably be recalled to the witness stand, to give information concerning the various forms of policies issued, their exact cost to the policy holder, and their exact value upon maturity. The deferred dividend system will be thoroughly probed, for it is this system that is said to be the fundamental cause of the many scandals in the life insurance company. The deferred form of policy makes it possible for companies to pile up huge surpluses which are a constant source of temptation to officers and directors to use the funds for personal speculation.

The Dress Suit Case Mystery.

Boston, Oct. 3.—An arrest in the dress suit case mystery is imminent, for at last the police know the name of the man who purchased the large suit case of Joseph Berkman, in which the dismembered torso of a young woman was found off Winthrop on Sept. 21, and the smaller suit case from Meyer Rubin, which has not been found. The identity of the man under suspicion has been established, apparently beyond a doubt. He could not be found last night, although detectives were scouring the city for him. He has been missing about ten days, but information has come to the State and city police which raises their hopes of locating him today.

Fatal Stabbing Affray.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 3.—Charles Dexter, catcher of the Des Moines Western League baseball team, last night fatally stabbed P. C. Dexter formerly played on the Chicago National League team, and was a Louisville American Association manager. He is one of the best known ball players in the country. Bateman is alive this morning, but it is said he would not recover.

A Lion's Jealous Rage.

Gilman, Ills., Oct. 3.—Roosevelt, the big lion of the John Robinson Circus, attacked his trainer, Miss Aimee Blondell, of Chicago, during the performance here yesterday afternoon, and so terribly mangled her that her doctors say she cannot live. The big beast was perforated with bullets from the rifles of the United States cavalry men traveling with the show, and will also probably die. In the panic following the attack women and children were trampled, and the performance came to an abrupt end. Mrs. James Darlington, of Indianapolis, fell, striking her head on a stake and fracturing her skull. Miss Blondell's act was put on in the presence of about 10,000 people. After the lions had jumped through hoops and played see-saw, they were fed raw meat. The big lion of the group is Roosevelt, named after the President. Another of the lions is named Bryan, and when Miss Blondell gave Bryan the choicest of the meat, Roosevelt, in a fit of jealously, sprang upon her and fastened his huge claws into her back and right arm, leaving frightful wounds. The arm was almost torn from its socket. Blood flowed from the cage, and all the animals of the menagerie becoming panic-stricken, set up a frightful noise, throwing the big crowd into a panic. The cavalrymen were called to the scene and pumped lead into the big brute until he fell on the floor of the cage. When Miss Blondell was pulled from under the lion's claws she was unconscious and bleeding profusely.

Mother Teaches Son She is His Sister

Springfield, Ohio, Oct. 3.—The recent deathbed confession of Mrs. Augustus Spyglass, or Miss Caroline M. Robinson, as she was commonly known at her home, 1313 Ridge avenue, Philadelphia, that she was the mother, and not the sister of Frank Edward Spyglass, has reunited the latter and his father, Augustus Spyglass, of that city, after a separation of thirty years. Spyglass and Miss Caroline M. Robinson were married here August 11, 1874. Fourteeen months later she secured a divorce, and was awarded the custody of their infant son. Then she disappeared. The child grew up to regard his own mother as his sister, until she summoned him to her bedside when she was dying. News of the whereabouts of the son first came to Police Chief R. E. O'Brien, this city, in a letter from the son asking him to locate his father. The reunion is the result.

Conditions in Hungary.

Budapesth, Hungary, Oct. 3.—There has been no abatement of the intense feeling aroused by the Hungarian-Austrian crisis, although outward demonstrations have ceased temporarily and the manoeuvering with both sides to secure some advantage of position against the renewal of negotiations, which, in the natural course of events, must come soon, continues unabated. But while quiet reigned for several days, grave fears are entertained for the next twenty-four hours. The coalition leaders have called a meeting for tonight, when they will consider plans for the next step to be taken. Much anxiety prevails.

Gunning Accidents.

Bangor, Me., Oct. 3.—With the opening of the season on big game, the shooting accidents commenced, one fatal and three serious cases being reported. John Glidden and his 16 year old son Henry, of Burlington, while on their way to a hunting camp, on Sunday, were making a carry of the canoes when a rifle which had been left leaning against a stump fell down and was discharged. The bullet went through the young man's head, making a jagged wound, from which he died yesterday. While hunting near Caribou, Ernest Smith was mistaken for a deer, and shot through the shoulder by his brother, Lee Smith. The wound is serious.

Reported Lynching.

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 3.—Reports have been received here from Edna, that Monk Gibson, the 16 year old negro, accused of murdering the Condit family of five on Friday last, has been shot to death by a posse of enraged citizens. Adjutant General Hulen has ordered three companies of National Guards of Houston to the scene. It is believed that there will be a serious conflict between citizens and troops, when the latter reach the vicinity of Edna. Respectable negroes have joined the whites in an effort to avenge the killing of the Condit family.

The body was found about two miles from his home and his friends can give no reason for his being on the railroad tracks.

Advanced Rate of Interest.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—The Imperial Bank of Germany has advanced its rate of discount to five per cent. On the Bourse two reasons are advanced for this. One is the advance made recently by the Bank of England in its rate and the other is the extraordinary pressure upon the Imperial Bank at the end of last week and yesterday.

Threw Away Wife's $5,000 Gems.

Cincinnati, Oct. 3.—Believing that a small hand-bag his wife had given him to carry contained nothing but their baby's nursing bottle, which he broke while getting on the train, M. M. Lawson, a prominent business man, yesterday emptied the contents of the bag out of the window of a Louisvill & Nashville car, dumping out, besides the broken glass, his wife's jewels valued at $,5000, which she had put in the bag for safekeeping. When the horrified man learned what he had done he got of at the next station and walked back to where he bag had been emptied. After several hours' search most of the jewels were recovered.

Exaggerated Reports.

London, Oct. 3.—The correspondent of the Evening News at Dublin, wires that the reports printed in New York and Chicago, in regard to the robbery of the home of John Mulhall, in which it was stated that jewels to the values nearly $1,000,000, including the crown of an ancient Irish king, had been stolen, are greatly exaggerated. The reward offered for their recovery is only $250.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 3., 11 a. m.—The trading element on floor of the exchange is generally disposed to be bearish, and has been working for a reaction in the general list since the opening. No long stock, though, appears to be coming out, and the selling, as far as can be seen, is almost wholly for short account.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Work on Electric Railway.

The work preliminary to the building of the new track of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon railway from the bridge over the Columbia road on the Virginia side of the river to the new Highway bridge has been started, and workmen are now engaged in placing in position a pile-driving machine which will be used in driving the piles on which the new road will be built. The new road runs in a direct line from the Columbia road crossing over the marsh, through which "Gravelly" creek takes its course, to the new bridge. An earthen fill is to be built around a pile foundation across the marsh, and over "Gravelly" creek a broad arch will be built. The embankment will be about a mile in length and will be about twelve or fifteen feet high above the bed of the run. A double track will be laid on the new roadbed. It is stated that the work on the new piece of road will be pushed, and that it will be ready for service by the time the new Highway bridge is completed and opened for public use some time during the coming winter.

Another large piece of work that has just been started by the railway authorities is the elimination of the steep grade on what is known as Mount Vernon hill, from Little Hunting creek to within a few hundred feet of the gates to Mount Vernon. This work has been started and will be pushed ahead with a large force of workmen in order to have it completed before bad weather begins.

It is understood that the grade of the road will be changed from Hunter's station, about two miles from Mount Vernon, to the gates of Mount Vernon. The fill proposed will raise the trestle across Little Hunting creek about seventeen feet and will lower the grade at Mount Vernon about four feet.

Grace Church Concert.

At the concert to be given at the Opera House on Thursday night the Danse Macabre will be rendered by Miss L. M. Steiner and Mrs. O. F. Carter. Danse Macabre is the cemetery dance, "or dance of death." One of the superstitions during the middle ages throughout Europe, and especially in France, was that of the "Danse Macabre," a belief that once a year, on Hallowe'en, the dead of the churchyards rose for one wild, hideous carnival, in which King Death acted as master of ceremonies. This composition of Saint-Saens opens with the twelve weird strokes indicating the arrival of midnight, struck out upon a vibrant tombstone by the impatient hand of Death himself. Then follows a curious light staccato passage suggesting the moment when, in response to this awesome signal, the specters appear from their graves and come tip-toeing forward to take their places. Then Death attempts to tune up the fiddle, as he is to furnish the music for the dance. It is very much out of tune and refuses to come up to pitch. In spite of his best endeavors the E string obstinately remains E flat. After repeated attempts, with growing vexation, he abandons the effort and strikes into the dance itself, weird, grotesque, at times almost hideous, its forward movement broken but once by a slower, more plaintive strain, suggesting the sigh of the night wind through the yews and cypresses. Then an onward crush again, ending in an almost demoniac climax of wild hilarity. Then a sudden hush, in which the distant crow of the morning cock is distinctly heard, twice repeated, and with a wild hurry and scurry specters betake themselves to their graves once more.

Confederate Veterans.

A regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held at their hall last night, Commander John M. Johnson presiding. The following were elected delegates to attend the eighteenth annual meeting of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans, of the Department of Virginia, which will be held in Petersburg, commencing Wednesday, October 25, at 12 o'clock m., and will continue three days: Comrades, John Hough, F. J. Davidson, W. W. Sherwood and Col. Arthur Herbert; alternates, Rev. F. J. Brooke, Alexander Lyles, R. M. Crook, and Robt. W. Ballenger. An invitation from A. P. Hill Camp, of Petersburg, for this camp and all ex-Confederates to participate in the grand parade to take place on the 26th of October was received.

The commander announced to the camp the death of Comrade J. Stanley Neale, and Comrades E. H. O'Brien, S. C. Boush and J. W. Hammond were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions on his death.

The Wilkins-Wood Wedding.

Miss Helen Vincent Wood, daughter of Mr and Mrs. W. D. Wood, last night became the bride of Mr. R. Maurice Wilkins. The ceremony was performed by Rev Wm. J. Morton, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the two families, who had gathered at the home of the bride's parents, No. 200 north Columbus street. The bride wore a handsome blue silk traveling gown, with trimmings of champagne and green, and hat to match, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. After an informal reception Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins left for a trip to the north. They will be at home at 200 north Columbus street after October 15.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The Late C. M. Kemp.

Notice of the death of Mr. E. M. Kemp, formerly of this city, which occurred in Houston, Tex., last month, was made in the Gazette at that time. The following is from the Galveton Post of September 20:

"Information reached the city this morning of the death of Charles M. Kemp, in Houston, last night. Mr. Kemp had been sick for some time with malarial fever and was presumed to have recovered when there came a turn for the worse, culminating in his death. Mr. Kemp was well known in Galveston, having for years held the position of chief clerk in the general claim department of the Santa Fe under Mr. H. S. Downey. He came to Galveston in the early '80s and was a resident here until 1899, when he removed to Houston to assume management of the land of the J. H. Burnett estate. Mr. Kemp in 1890 married Miss Carrie W. Franklin, daughter of Judge R. M. Franklin, of Galveston, and three children blessed their union. Born in Alexandria, Va., Mr. Kemp exemplified the sterling integrity of the Old Dominion State. He was for many years secretary of Tucker lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, and the funeral services will be conducted by the lodge he served so faithfully. The funeral will take place on the arrival of the Galveston, Houston and Henderson train at 10:45 o'clock tomorrow morning and interment will be in Cahill's cemetery.

Railroad Notes.

It is said in railroad circles that the electric railway company is contemplating the construction of a spur track from their main line north of the culvert over Hooff's run to the western entrance of the new union depot, after which a street car will be run from the foot of King street to the depot for the accomodation of city passengers.

A temporary wooden fence is being erected between the tracks at the new depot. This will at a future time be taken down and an iron fence constructed.

Mr. John Grady, who has for some time been the railroad flagman at Duke and Henry streets, has been relieved from duty by the abolition of that post.

Last Night's Show.

The Opera House was packed last night to see the performance of "Humpty Dumpty." The show was well performed in every particular and abounded in plenty of humor. The vaudeville numbers were especially good, and were heartily applauded, the musical team being excellent. George Adams played the part of Humpty Dumpty in fine style and kept the crowd in an uproar. The play pleased every one and was up to the average. The next attraction will be the Tempest Dramatic Company in repertoire, starting next Monday night and playing one week.

Missionary Society Meeting.

A large congregation was present at the M. E. Church South last night to hear the address of Miss Tarrant on missionary life in China. Miss Tarrant appeared in Chinese apparel, and her address was listened to with interest. Miss Melissa Hill presided. The music was inspiring and each feature of the meeting was greatly enjoyed.

The missionary society held a business meeting this morning and and another in the afternoon. The last meeting will be held tonight, the proceedings of which will be of an interesting nature.

Additional Building.

The Sisters of the Holy Cross, who recently acquired the Daingerfield property on the southeast corner of Prince and Columbus streets, will soon erect an annex to the building on the Columbus street side. It will be a three-story and attic structure, 63 feet long and 34 feet wide. Ground was broken yesterday for the building, the erection of which is under the supervision of Mr. Thos. N. Scott. The additional building has become necessary to meet the demands made upon the academy.

The Late J. F. Spaulsbury.

The remains of the late James Floyd Spaulsbury, who was found dead in his room in Richmond Sunday night, have been brought to this city. The sad circumstances in connection with his death were given yesterday. His wife (formerly Mrs. Nellie M. Fitzsimmons) had gone from this city to Richmond to visit her husband, and upon reaching his boarding house was prostrated by grief when she found he had died about an hour previous to her arrival.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Alice T. Fair took place this afternoon from the residence, 1102 Wilkes street. The services were attended by relatives and friends of the deceased.

Death of Colored Resident.

Anthony Boarman, a well-known and respected colored resident, died at his home on Franklin street, between Fairfax and Lee, last night. The deceased was 74 years old and had recently been paralyzed. He had lived in the house in which he died since the close of the civil war and was known by the residents of that locality as an industrious and honest man. He leaves a wife and one daughter.

The Alexandria members were royally entertained by their Leesburg brethern. The visitors did not return home until this morning.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Cold, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Improvements in Telephone Service.

The improvements which have been made in the Southern Bell Telephone Exchange are nearing completion. On the outside new poles and wires have replaced the old ones throughout the city, and a complete new outfit on the inside will make this a model Exchange. Some inconvenience will be experienced by the subscribers for the next ten days while the numbers are being transferred from the old switch-board to the new. A good many changes having been made in the numbers, the subscribers will be furnished with a telephone Directory, and in order to give good service each subscriber is requested to co-operate with the operator, and always give numbers when making a call.

Death of Mr. Speiden.

Mr. Edgar Speiden died at his home in Washington this morning, aged 70 years. Mr. Speiden formerly lived in this city where he married Miss Lucy Leadbeater (the eldest sister of the late E. S. WASHINGTON, D. C.

Our Autumn-Winter Opening

This Tuesday and Following Days of the Week.

The New Dress Goods

(Second Floor, G Street).

Our display of the new Dress Materials includes all the correct fabrics for church, wedding, reception, calling, shopping and traveling costumes. The exquisite wools with overweaving of silk, those in sombre effects, and the Highland plaids are all artistic and popular. Perhaps the most sought of all dress goods is Broadcloth.

The perfection of this peerless goods is Chiffon Broadcloth, the most exquisite of all gown materials. It comes in black, white and colors—all the new shades appearing in it to the best advantage, those most effective being the Burgundy red, the Alice blue, Pistache, new rose, gray, very pale and very dark, the new pink and a variety of greens.

Among the imported materials are many rich and exclusive weaves purchasable only in our Dress Goods Department.

Opening of the New Silks

(Second Floor, G Street).

The New Silks are especially rich and beautiful, being in soft, harmonious colorings that appeal to good taste, and delight all well-dressed women.

We have succeeded in securing from the foremost manufacturers, European and American, such an abundance of rare and beautiful weaves that our exhibition of them in the Silk Department on the second floor is a veritable exposition of textile art.

And our exclusive, luxurious fabrics are augmented by a collection of less expensive silks, which lend themselves as readily and effectively to the accepted modes as the more expensive sorts.

Opening of the New Dress Trimmings.

(Main Floor, G Street).

Never before in the history of Dress Trimmings has there such a lavish display of materials.

Trimmings are so designed that they may be separated and used as motifs, making them amenable for various styles of treatment. Appliques with gold and silver effects are among the newest trimmings, and all of the Oriental embroideries are enhanced by the glimmer of gold and silver threads.

An almost endless variety of gimps is shown in many combinations of colors and braids, and the richness of the intermingled silks, velvets and Persian touches offers a superb supply of materials with which to effect fashion's decrees in dress decoration as well as original adaptations.

Suicide Kept Pact.

Police officers who were summoned Sunday by Mrs. Theobald von Bovens, whose husband had locked him self in a room in Berlin and would not open the door, broke it down and found him dead. By his side was a memorandum which related that before his marriage he had worked at his calling as a wood carver in America, the localities not being given, and that at a ball one evening a young girl tried to kiss him; that he repelled her and she drowned herself. The next day, October 1, 1885, a kinsman of the girl challenged Von Bovens to a so-called "American duel," drawing lots to determine which antagonist should kill himself. Von Bovens drew black and under the agreement he was to kill himself in 12 years. He returned to Germany, married, and the twelfth anniversary of the agreement passed unregarded and each succeeding one, until a short time ago, when an American named Fish arrived in Berlin with a letter from Von Bovens' antagonist reminding him of the duty, which he had not fulfilled. Von Bovens had taken cyanide potassium. He was enrolled on the police records of the district as a naturalized American.

Mitchell Has A Candidate.

President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, will visit President Roosevelt at the White House today by appointment. The conference will relate in no way to conditions among the coal miners of Pennsylvania, but will be entirely in connection with the appointment of an internal-revenue collector for the Scranton district in Pennsylvania. Mr. Mitchell is very anxious to have Louis Hammerling appointed to the position. That would be easy, if the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress assents. But Mr. Mitchell has not experienced an easy time in obtaining the delegation's support for his candidate, although, at the present juncture in Pennsylvania, it is thought by some it will pay the Pennsylvanians to line up with Mr. Mitchell. It is not true that the President sent for Mr. Mitchell. The latter asked the President to receive him and Mr. Roosevelt responded in the affirmative.

Frightful Suffering Relieved.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drugstore, guaranteed.

A Pleasure To All.

No Pill is as pleasant and positive as De Witt's Little Early Risers. These Famous Little Pills are so mild and effective that children, delicate ladies and weak people enjoy their cleansing effect, while strong people say they are the best liver pills sold. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Could Not be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Faith Not Necessary.

You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is curing hunereds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co. 401 King street.
